

I wish to express my grave concern about pending FCC alteration to existing regulations regarding media ownership within the telecommunications industry. We have already seen what a terrible mistake deregulation of the radio industry was. Instead of fostering competition in the marketplace, it has consolidated ownership into a handful of corporate hands, hardly serving the public interest. Please do not further exacerbate the problem by destroying the rest of the media.

Sincerely,
Tobey Layne